Office of the Governor
STATE CAPITOL
DES MOINES, IOWA 50319

Dear Hockey Fans:

Once again I am pleased to welcome the Des Moines Buccaneers for an exciting United States Junior Hockey League season. The Bucs are prepared to return to the Des Moines Ice Arena with invigorating amateur hockey action for their fans.

This season will certainly be one to watch as young, dedicated players strive together for the top division ranking and individually for athletic excellence. The Buccaneers will move across the ice at a fast pace offering their opponents a real challenge and their fans a good season.

Best wishes to the Bucs and all their fans for a winning hockey season.

Sincerely,

Robert D. Ray

RDR:njm

On behalf of the Buccaneers Organization I'd like to personally thank each and every Supporter of Amateur Hockey in Des Moines. We are completing our 3rd successful season of operation in the U.S.H.L. and because of the local fan involvement and sponsor commitments Hockey is alive in the Capital City.
As President of the Des Moines Buccaneers and speaking on behalf of Board of Directors the rewards are numerous!

FINANCIALLY

It has provided Des Moines with a place for the youth to continue and further develop their Hockey skills.

EDUCATIONALLY

It has made available college scholarships for our young men who otherwise may not have had the opportunity to further their education.

EMOTIONALLY

The Buccaneers make possible a time and place for our family (the fans) to gather and view the most exciting sport available.

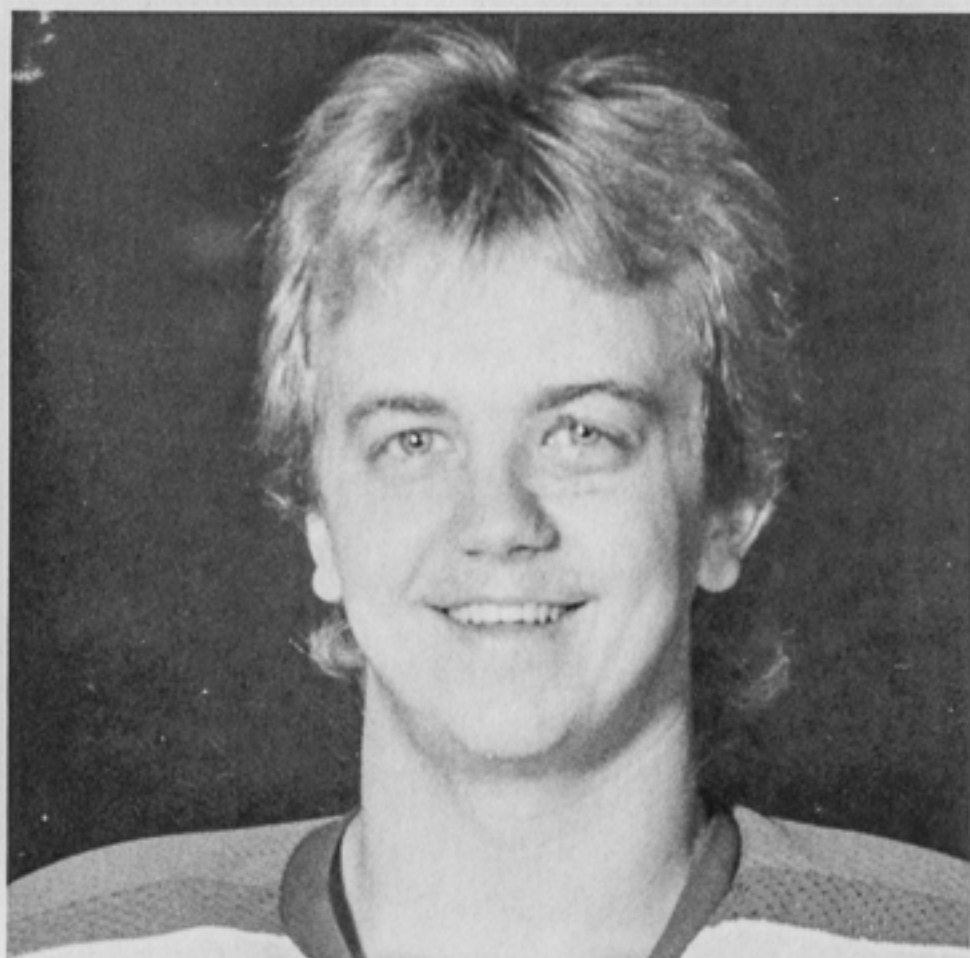

It is our sincere hope, you the Fan and Hockey Family Member will continue to support the Des Moines Buccaneers as you so graciously have in the past.

The pleasure is ours! Thank you for 82-83.

Sincerely,

Jim Johnson

GREG SHIVELY — POSITION: DEFENSE

BIRTHDATE: SEPTEMBER 10, 1962

HOMETOWN: WATERLOO, INDIANA

One of the two Buccaneers who have been with the team since its inception in 1980, the ever popular 5-foot, 10-inch, 175-pounder was honored by being named captain of the 1982-83 squad. An unwavering defenseman with a deadly shot, Greg overcame a number of injuries in 1981-82. He capped the season by being named a member of the All-Star United States Hockey League team that played in Leysin, Switzerland last spring. Greg's goal is to play with a major college or turn professional before embarking on a career in the field of medicine after his Junior A eligibility is used up next spring.

The Des Moines Buccaneers will again be bringing exciting hockey entertainment to Central Iowa this season.

In addition to fine entertainment, the Bucs organization which is a member of the United States Junior Hockey League, helps high school graduates obtain college scholarships through hockey.

During these trying times when there is a real need for reassurance that someone does care about the future, let us show these young folks that we support their educational aims by attending the Bucs games at the Des Moines Ice Arena.

Lets go BUCS!!!!.

TIM MILLER — POSITION: DEFENSE

BIRTHDATE: DECEMBER 25, 1962

HOMETOWN: MINNETONKA, MINNESOTA

Tim is a solid-as-a-rock defenseman, who was named to the United States Hockey League's All-Star team last season and represented the league in the post-season, international tournament at Leysin, Switzerland. A 1981 graduate of Hopkins Lindbergh High School, Tim maintained a 3.0 grade-point average while playing football and hockey. As a prep he gained all-conference honors in both sports, while captaining both teams. Played for the Bloomington Junior Stars in 1981-82 season. This rock 'em, sock 'em, hard-nosed hockey player hopes to lead the Bucs to the top spot in the USHL and then to a berth in the National Tournament.

Best of Luck to the Buccaneers

#10 GREG BISKUP — POSITION: LEFT WING

BIRTHDATE: JANUARY 25, 1964

HOMETOWN: ROSEAU, MINNESOTA

In addition to leading his prep team in scoring while being named most valuable player, Greg maintained a 3.5 grade-point average and graduated with honors in the top 10 per cent of his class. The 5-foot, 10-inch, 167-pounder played both at Warroad and Roseau High Schools before graduating from Roseau last May. He aspires to win a scholarship that will enable him to play in the Western College Hockey Association and then may pursue a career in law.

Amateur Hockey President's Message

The Greater Des Moines Amateur Hockey Association, the Board of Directors and myself want to extend a very warm welcome to the players, coaches and staff of the Des Moines Buccaneers, and wish them only the very best for the 1982-83 season.

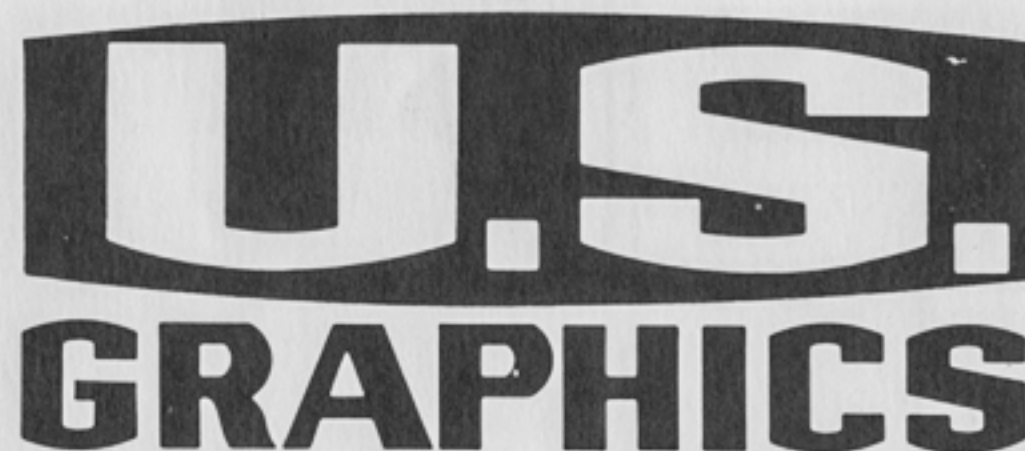

We know that you as fans are already enjoying an exciting season of hockey; and the kids, as well as myself, want to thank you all for your support. For you are the envy of every club in the league, leaders in attendance for the past two years.

Our association today has over 400 boys and girls ranging in age from 4-18 participating in our hockey program, along with our figure skating association, learn-to-skate classes, our new Polar program, High School hockey, Adult Leagues, and special education classes. I would like to thank you all in the entire association for your time and dedication in making sure hockey is alive and well in Des Moines. It takes this kind of effort for your program to be successful.

So together, let's get behind our team. GO BUCS!

BILL RICHER, President G.D.M.A.H.A.

#4 BOB McCORKLE — POSITION: FORWARD & DEFENSE
BIRTHDATE: MARCH 14, 1963
HOMETOWN: FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

This versatile, 6-foot, 3-inch, 175-pounder joined the Buccaneers in November after compiling 49 points on 19 goals and 30 assists at Belleville, Canada, last season. The 1981 graduate of Northside High School in Fort Wayne, Ind., has since played all positions but goalie for the Bucs. An all-around athlete, Bob won three letters and was named his teams' most valuable player in tennis and golf as a prep. When his Junior A eligibility expires after this season, Bob plans to attend college and someday hopes to be a computer technician.

BIRTHDATE: FEBRUARY 8, 1964

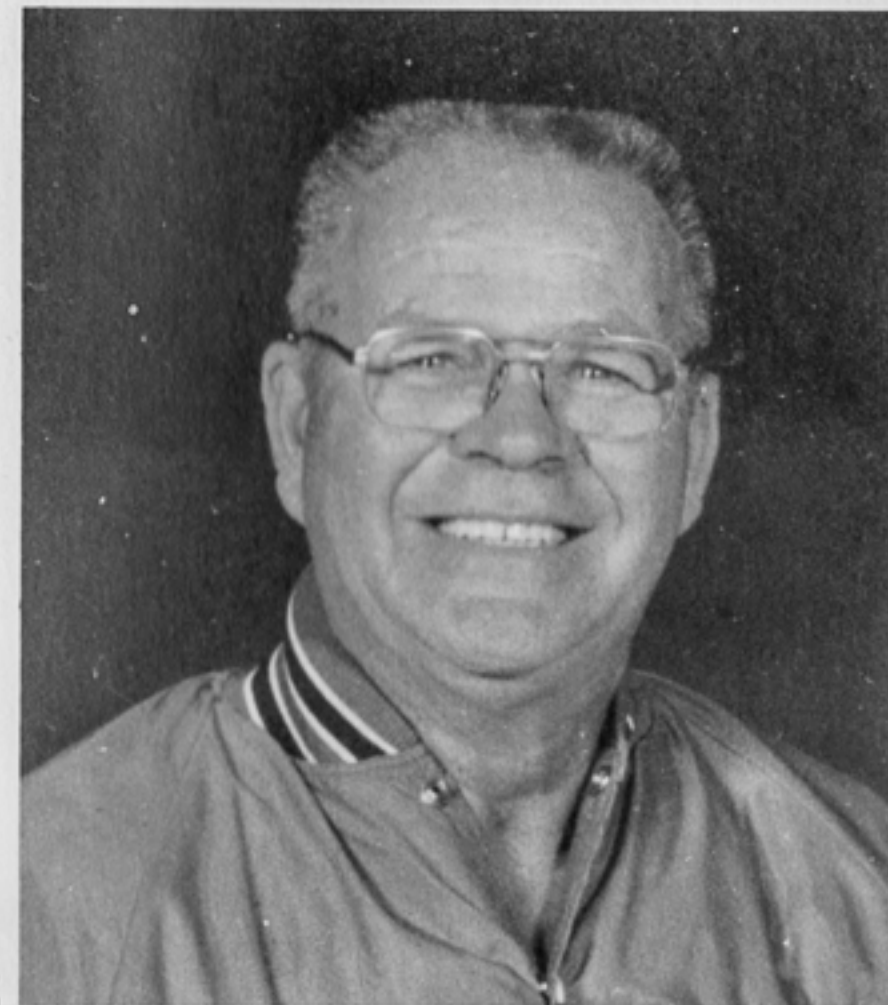

HOMETOWN: URBANDALE, IOWA

Despite standing only 5-foot, 6-inches and tipping the scales at 140 pounds, Steve possesses excellent balance and skating ability that has enabled him to dazzle much bigger foes, while taking on all the punishment large enemies can dish out. One of the top scorers in the Metro Conference and the Iowa High School Hockey League last season, Steve was graduated from Urbandale High School last spring after becoming an academic giant with a 3.1 grade-point average. While a prep, Steve gained all-star honors. While a J-Hawk, he also lettered in baseball. Steve is looking forward to winning a college scholarship.

BIRTHDATE: NOVEMBER 30, 1965
HOMETOWN: JOHNSTON, IOWA

Pete, the youngest Buccaneer, was born to Coach Ivan Prediger and his wife, Judy, when Ivan was playing in Des Moines with the old Oak Leafs. A promising 6-foot, 3-inch, 195-pound left-hander, Pete also is a talented baseball player during the off-season. Only a junior at Johnston High, Pete maintains a B average with his studies. Last season gained All-State recognition while playing with Urbandale in the Iowa High School Hockey League. He wants to follow in dad's footsteps by playing professional hockey after winning a college scholarship while playing for the Bucs.

#7 SCOTT PURPUR — POSITION: CENTER

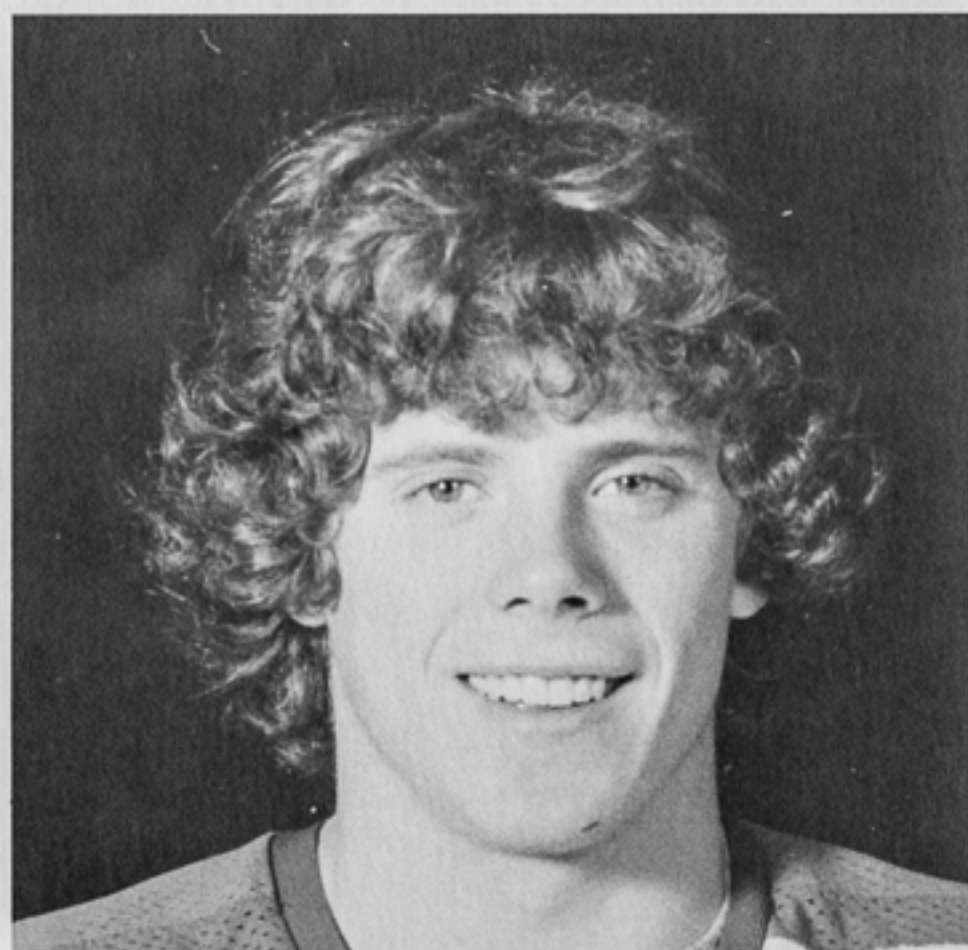

BIRTHDATE: FEBRUARY 17, 1964

HOMETOWN: GRAND FORKS, NORTH DAKOTA

This talented, lightning quick center with a deadly left-handed shot is another of the Buccaneers' "Grand Forks Connection." Like several of his teammates, Scott was graduated from Grand Forks Central High School this spring. The 5-foot, 8-inch, 175-pounder won most valuable player, all-conference and all-city honors as a prep. Although he says his future is undecided, Scott has already caught the eye of college scouts.

Daryl Seltenreich steams down the right side on the way to a score against rival Sioux City.

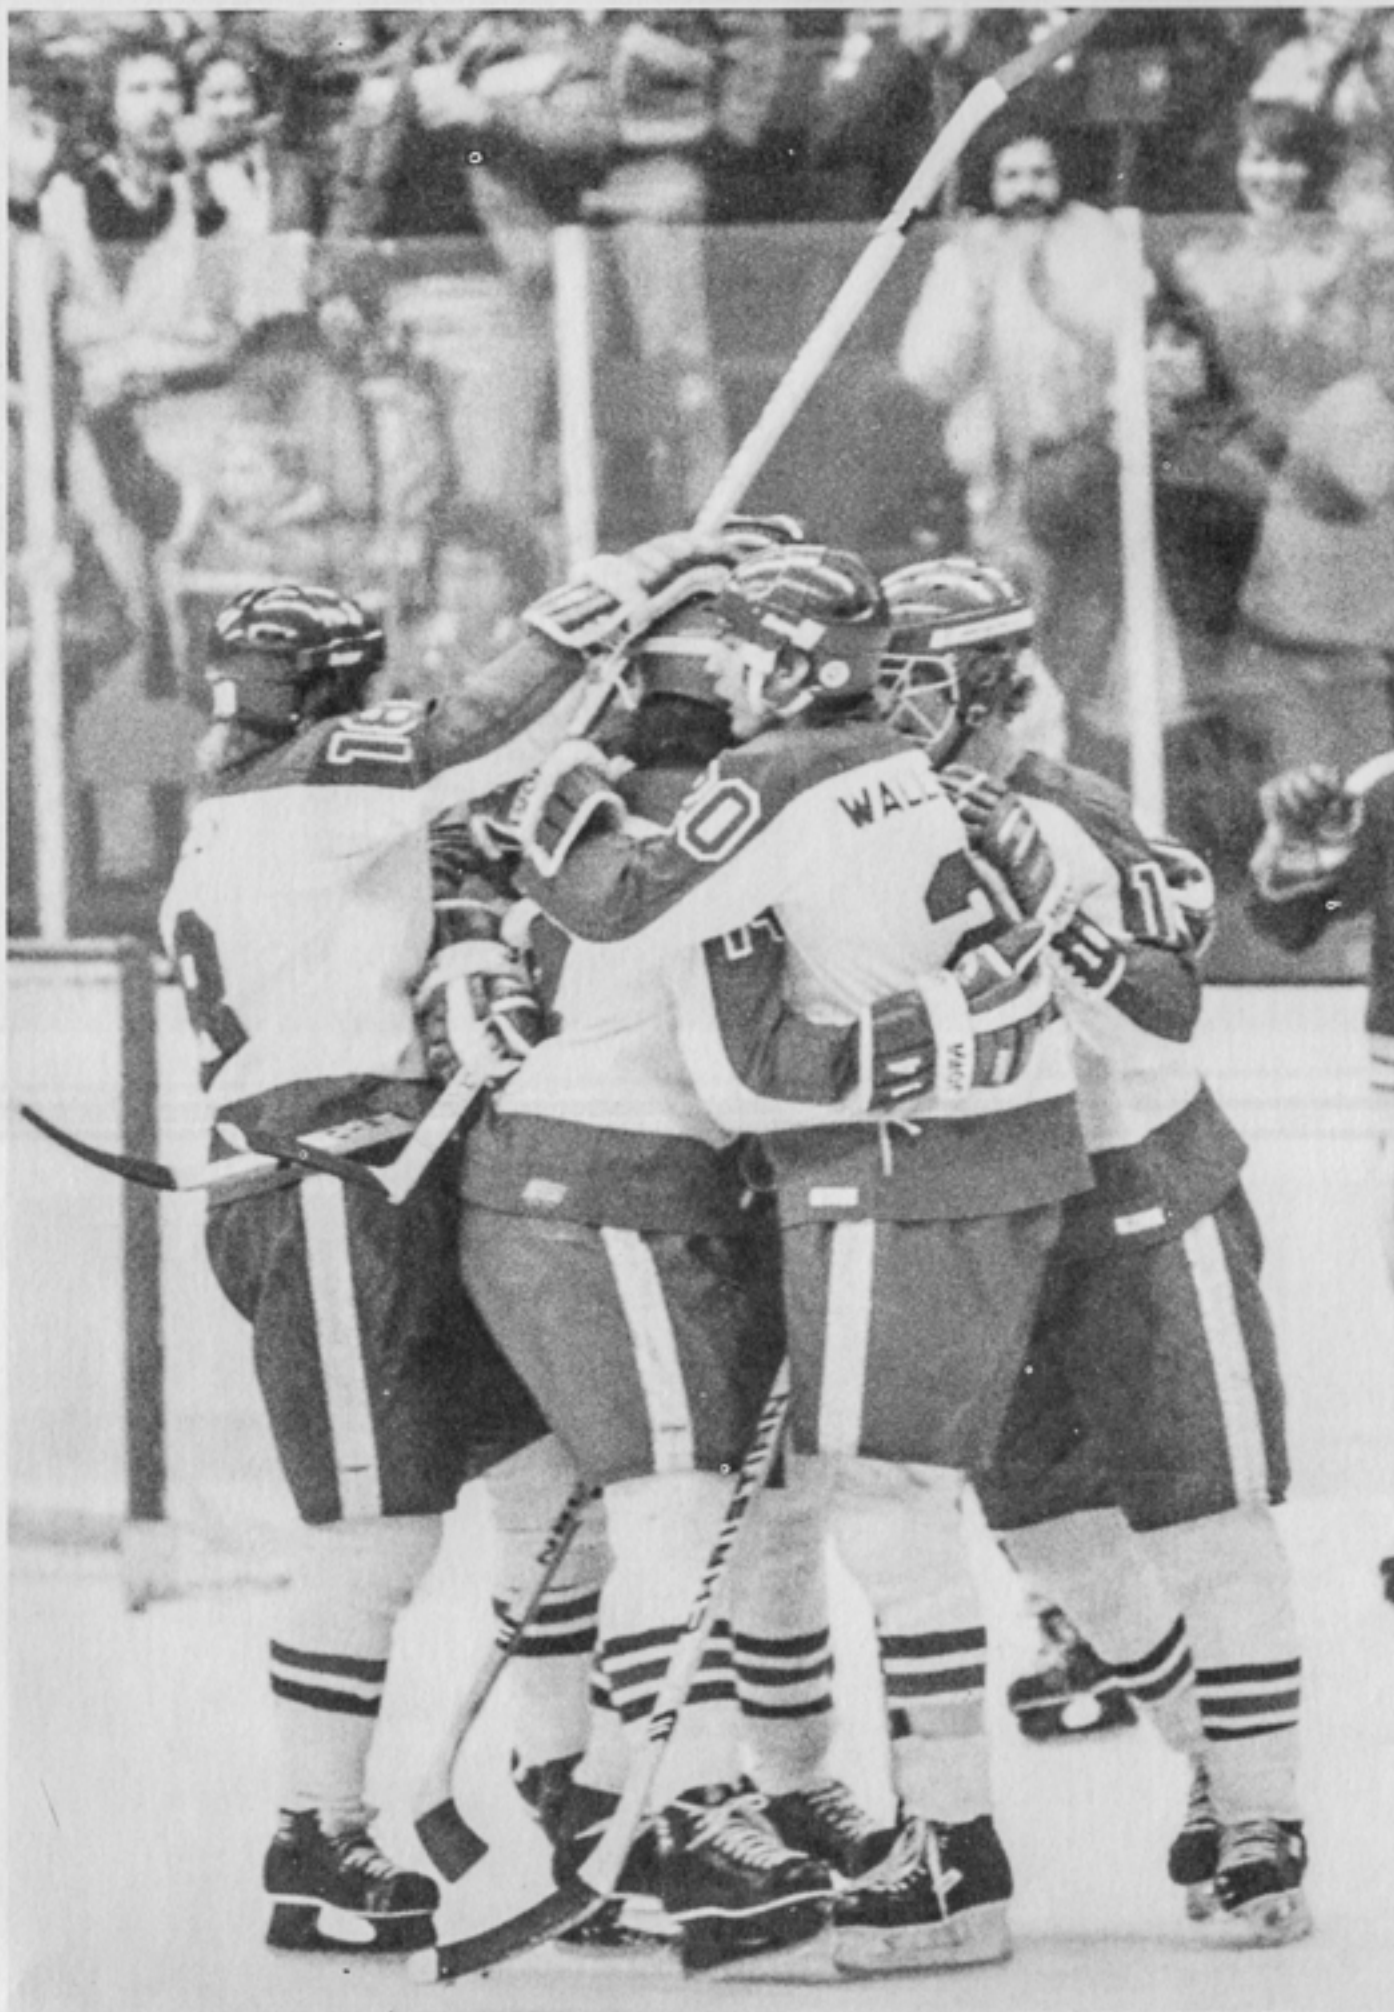

#22 JOHN DEMANN — POSITION: DEFENSE

BIRTHDATE: SEPTEMBER 23, 1964

HOMETOWN: EDINA, MINNESOTA

A solid 5-foot, 11-inch, 190-pounder, John helped Edina High School win conference titles on the gridiron, as well as on the ice. The June 1982 high school graduate, played last season on Edina's Junior B team. After graduating from college, John hopes to play professional hockey before settling down to a career as a Chiropractor or in business.

Buccaneers Greg Shively #18, Bobby Anzalone #14, Dave Wallenstein #20, and Greg Biskup #10 congratulate team-mate after a Buc goal.

#1 MARK PAGNAC — POSITION: GOAL

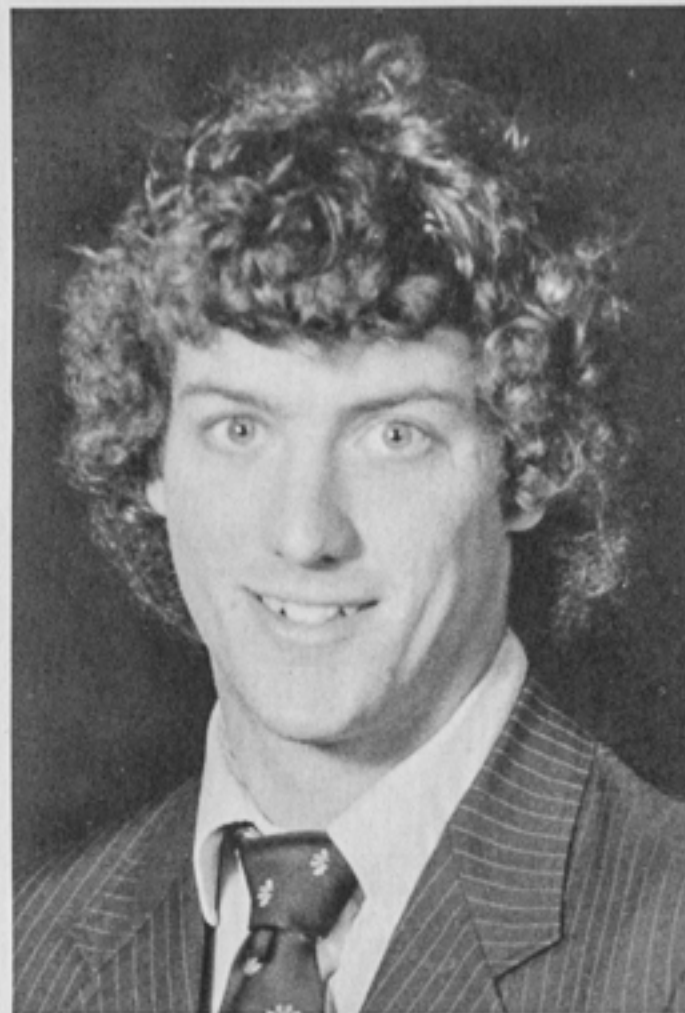

BIRTHDATE: JUNE 27, 1963

HOMETOWN: EAST GRAND FORKS, MINNESOTA

As a highlight of the 1981-82 season in which he helped lead the Buccaneers to a second-place finish in the United States Hockey League playoffs, Mark was in goal last April 11 when the USHL All-Stars defeated the host team, 8-4, in an international tournament at Leysin, Switzerland. A 6-foot, 4-inch, 190-pounder, Mark compiled an outstanding 3.25 grade-point average before graduating from East Grand Forks High School in May, 1981. He started in 36 games for the Bucs last season. Mark looks forward to getting a college education and to being "successful in life and the business world" after hanging up his mask, pads and gloves with Des Moines.

#10 Greg Biskup knocks down opposition and picks up loose puck.

Jeff Ulrich — Assistant Coach

Jeff remained with the Bucs this year as assistant coach after two crowd pleasing years as a player. Jeff has done so much for the Buc organization as a player and ambassador to the youth of our community and youth hockey. His intelligence and poise is a great help to the rookies on the Bucs, as well as the veterans.

#8 DAN RICHARDS — POSITION: RIGHT WING
BIRTHDATE: DECEMBER 8, 1963

HOMETOWN: GRAND FORKS, NORTH DAKOTA

A quick, tireless skater with an overwhelming shot, Dan is an electrifying 5-foot, 7-inch, 155-pound performer, who always gives 100 per cent on the ice. Dan capped off a star-studded athletic career at Grand Forks' Red River High School by receiving a 3.5 grade-point average in his senior year. Meanwhile, his bulging athletic trophy shelf includes all-city, all-conference and all-tournament honors. As a sophomore, he was named Athlete of the Year; as a senior, he captained his team and walked off with the Most Valuable Player trophy. Dan hopes to someday play Division I hockey in college and go on to a business career, possibly in business management or accounting.

#14 BOB ANZALONE — POSITION: CENTER

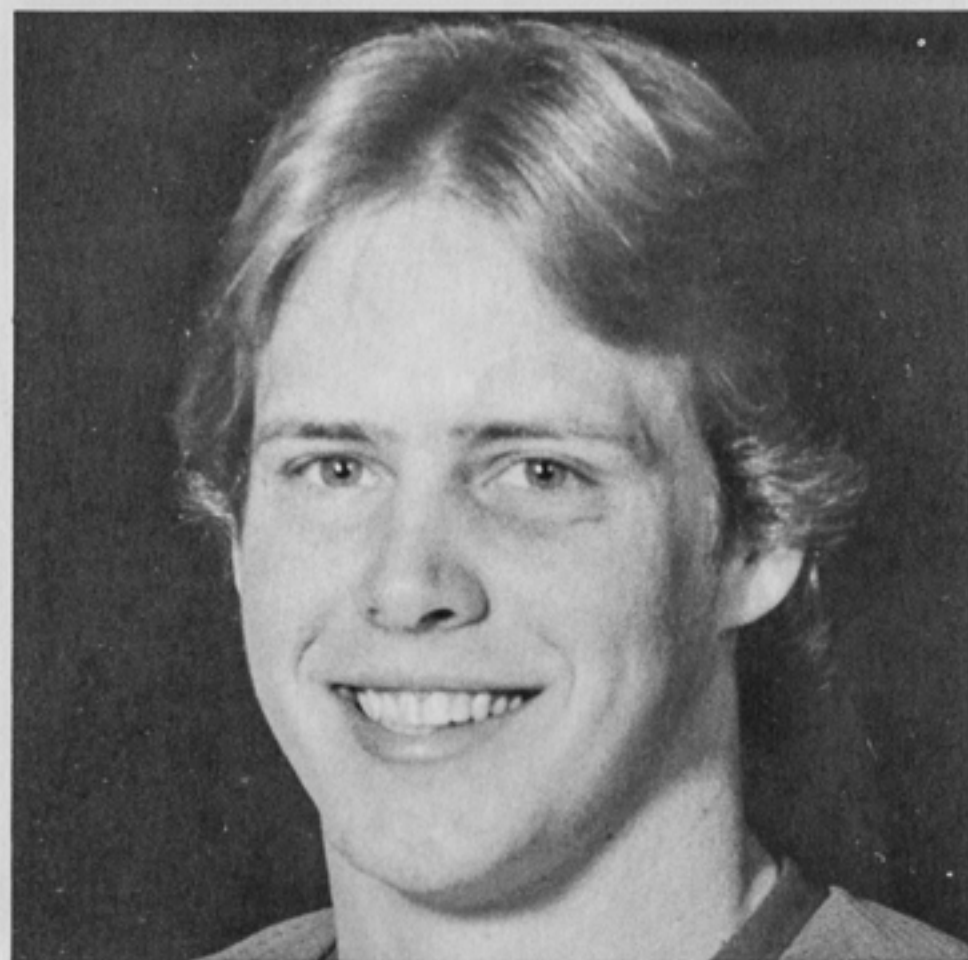

BIRTHDATE: APRIL 2, 1964

HOMETOWN: ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

Buccaneer Coach Ivan Prediger has had his eyes on Bob since Anzalone banged in two goals and added a pair of assists last Jan. 22, when Des Moines trimmed the Anzalone-led St. Louis Junior Stars to a 9-5 victory in an exhibition game at the Des Moines Ice Arena. A 5-foot, 11-inch, 165-pound graduate of Hazelwood East High in St. Louis, Bob's aggressive style has already made him a crowd pleaser. After hanging up his skates here, Bob is hopeful of going on to college before embarking on a career in the electronics field.

Bucs colorful Daryl Seltenreich #11 unleashes one of his famous slapshots in pursuing a Buc scoring record.

#11 DARYL SELTENREICH — POSITION: RIGHT WING
BIRTHDATE: FEBRUARY 1, 1964
HOMETOWN: ARVADA, COLORADO

After contributing 12 goals in the 1981-82 season, his first with the Buccaneers, "Salty" has come on to become one of the United States Hockey League's top scorers. Daryl gained a reputation as one of the USHL's fastest skaters in his inaugural season and hasn't stopped hustling for the 1982-83 campaign. After attending Arvada High School in his hometown, Daryl was graduated from Johnston High School last spring. Although considering himself a center, Daryl played most of his first season here at right wing before moving to the left, or off-wing position for the right-hander this season. After the Bucs, Daryl has his heart set on playing college and professional hockey and trying out for an Olympic team.

Scott Purpur #7 wins another face-off as teammate Greg LaDouceur #12 awaits loose puck.

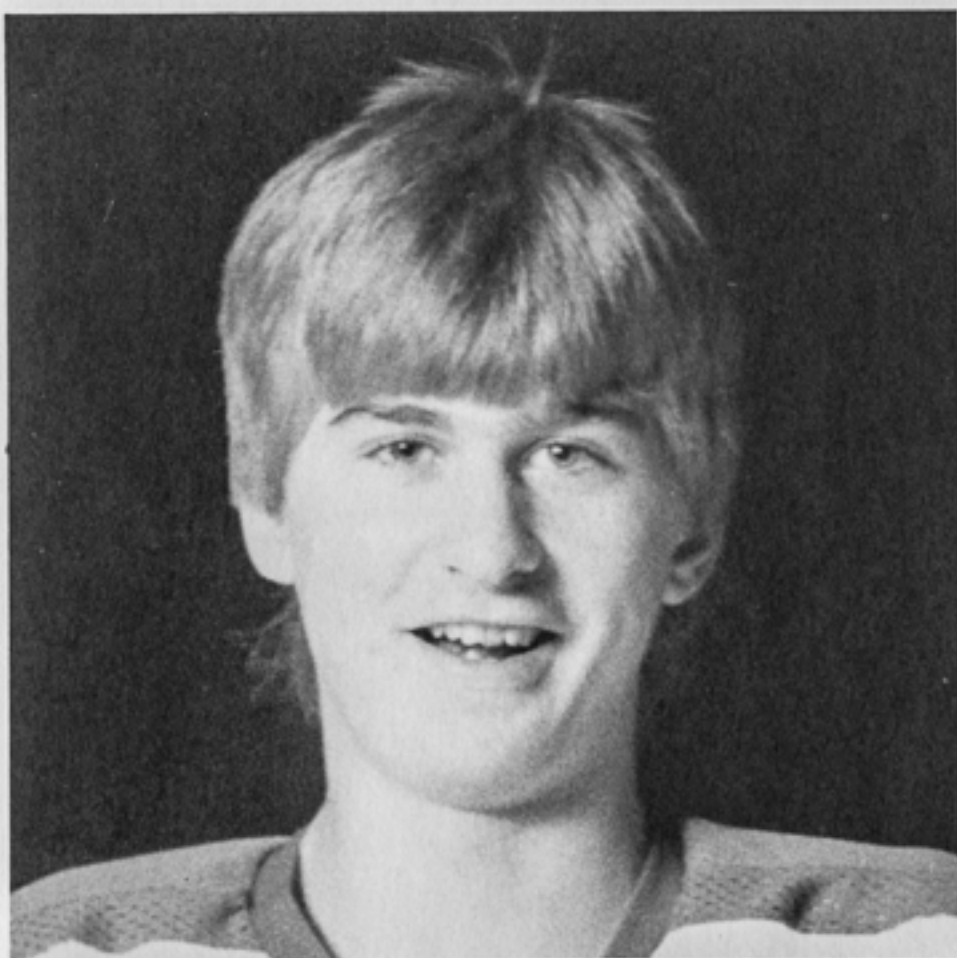

Steve Hammer #19 forces play to demonstrate that size is not always measured physically but "in the heart."

Hard check by Bob Anzalone #14 shows Buccaneer aggressive checking style.

Bucs Dan Richards #8 displays his exciting skating style as he overpowers a Sioux City defender.

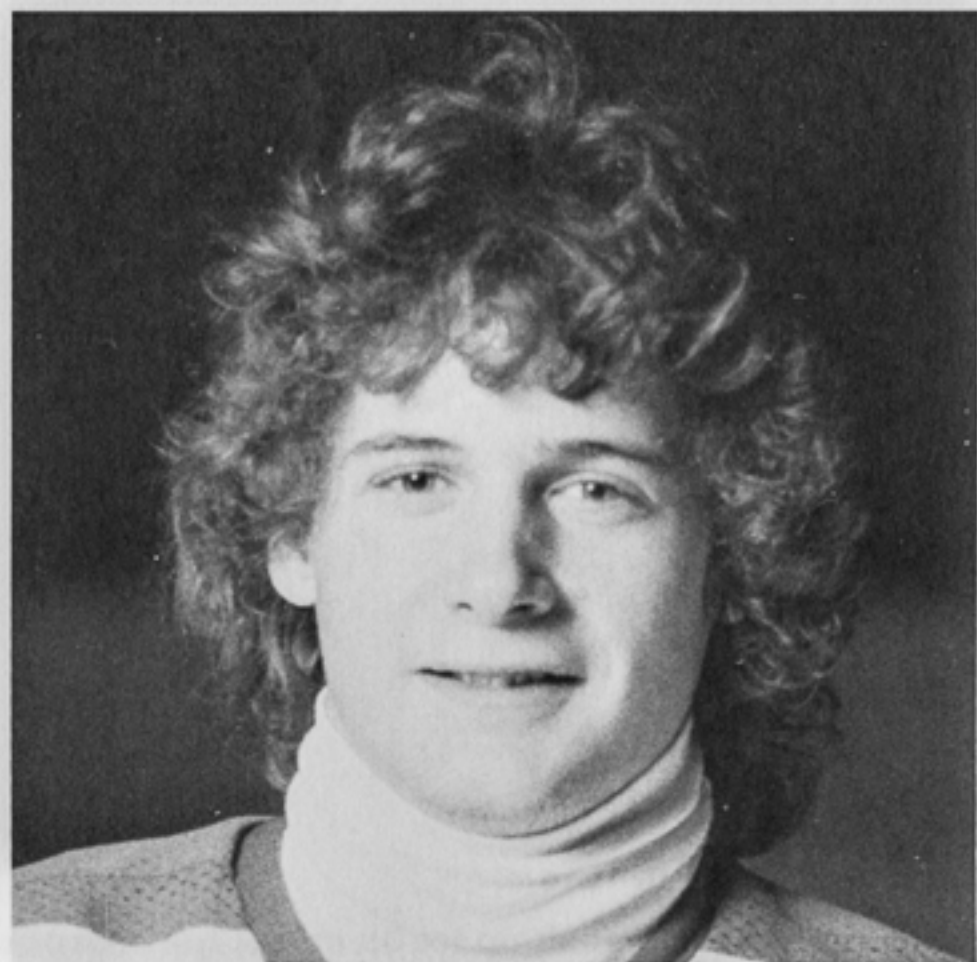

#20 DAVE WALLENSTEIN — POSITION: WING
BIRTHDATE: SEPTEMBER 26, 1962
HOMETOWN: FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

After totaling 28 points on 12 goals and 16 assists in 36 games as a teammate of Bob McCorkle last season at Belleville, Ontario, Canada, this hard-skating Hoosier quickly adopted to Coach Ivan Prediger's style of play here. The 6-foot, 160-pound graduate of Northrop High in Fort Wayne, Ind., won most valuable player honors with Fort Wayne's Junior Komets in 1981. Dave's father broadcasts games of the Fort Wayne Komets in the International Hockey League. Dave's hobbies include golf, fast cars, cool waves and surfing.

#18 Captain Greg Shively moves puck up ice on one of his many rushes.

#3 TOM KING — POSITION: CENTER

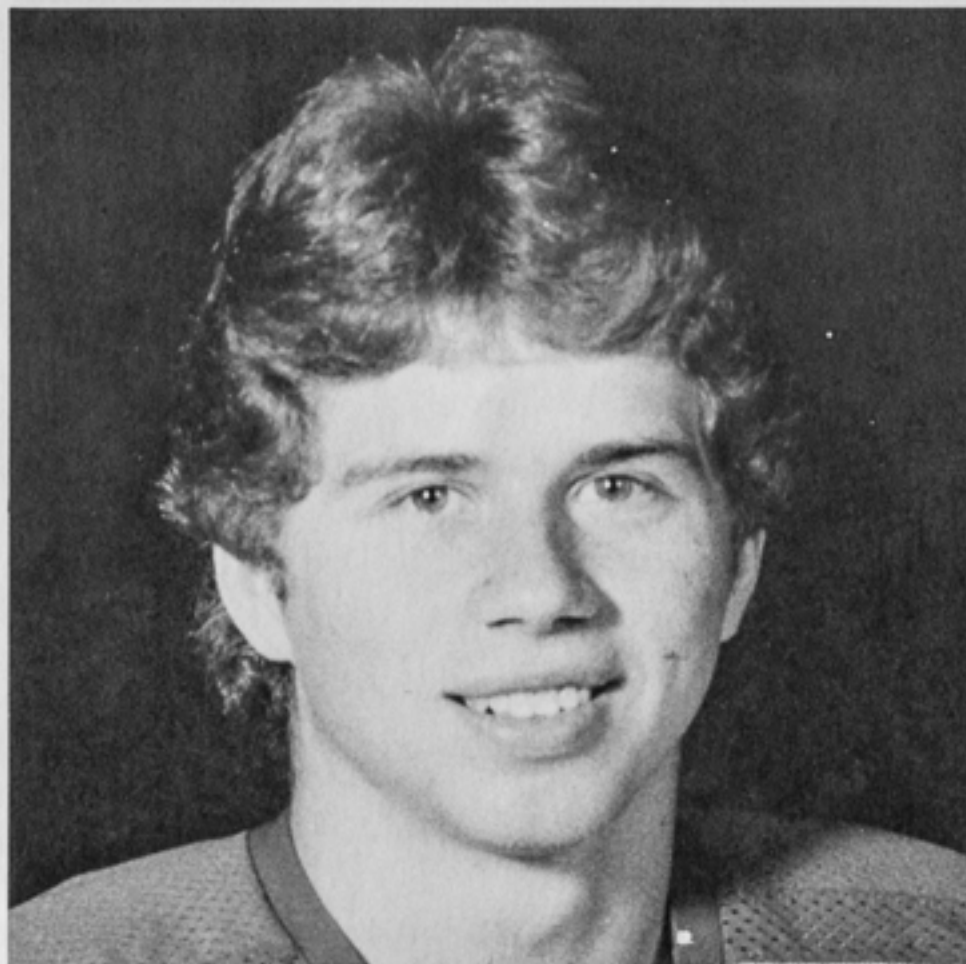

BIRTHDATE: APRIL 2, 1965

HOMETOWN: EAST GRAND FORKS, MINNESOTA

Although only 5-feet, 6-inches tall and weighing a mere 150 pounds, Tom outduels much larger foes by utilizing his aggressive style on the ice. The late addition to the Buccaneers squad is another of the long line of excellent prospects out of East Grand Forks, Minn. Tom, who maintained a 3.0 grade-point average at East Grand Forks High School, also lettered as a linebacker in football. "Kinger," who comes from a hockey family in which his brothers all played the game, is hopeful of eventually attending college and playing for a Division I team. Tom lists his hobbies as water skiing and hunting.

A checking Daryl Seltenreich #11 "lays the lumber" in an effort to prevent a goal.

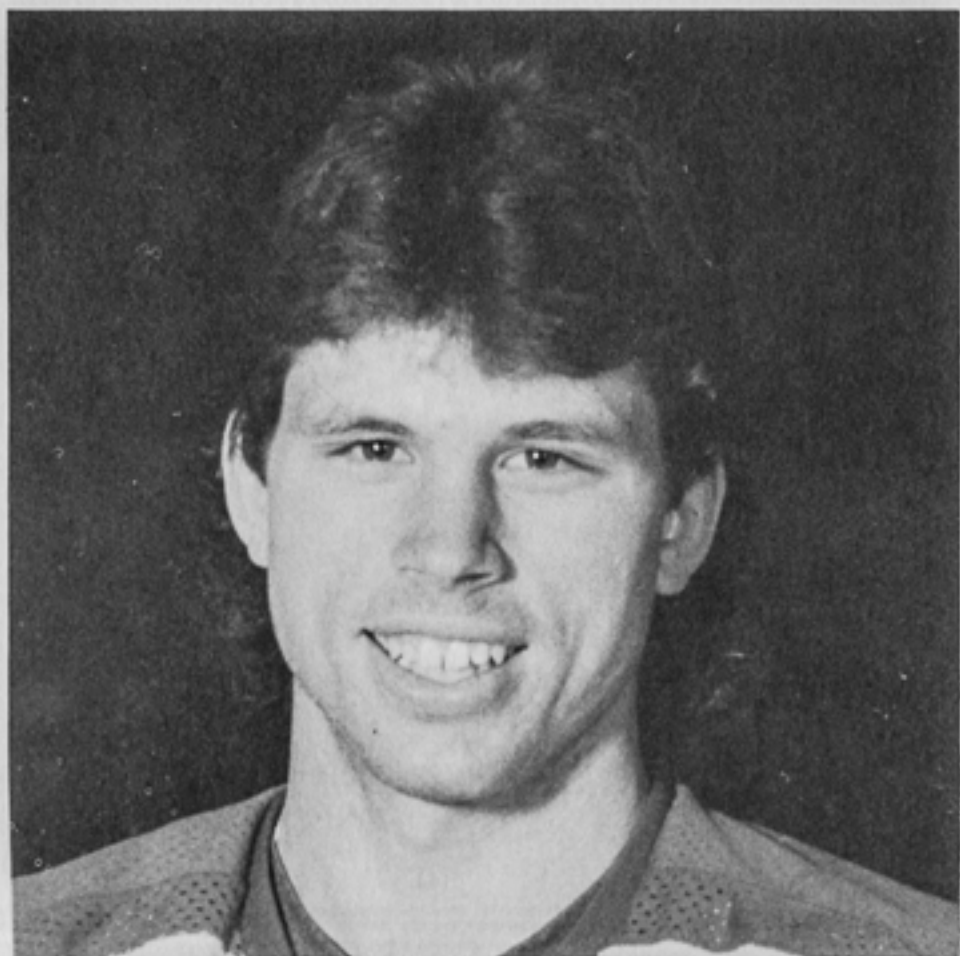

#21 MARK SMORONG — POSITION: GOAL

BIRTHDATE: FEBRUARY 10, 1964

HOMETOWN: BRAINERD, MINNESOTA

This quiet, but solid net-minder from northern Minnesota won his team's most valuable player trophy and all-conference honors as a prep. The 5-foot, 10-inch, 170-pounder also did well in the classroom, attaining a 3.02 grade-point average. As for the future, Mark hopes to sharpen his skills and someday play in the National Hockey League.

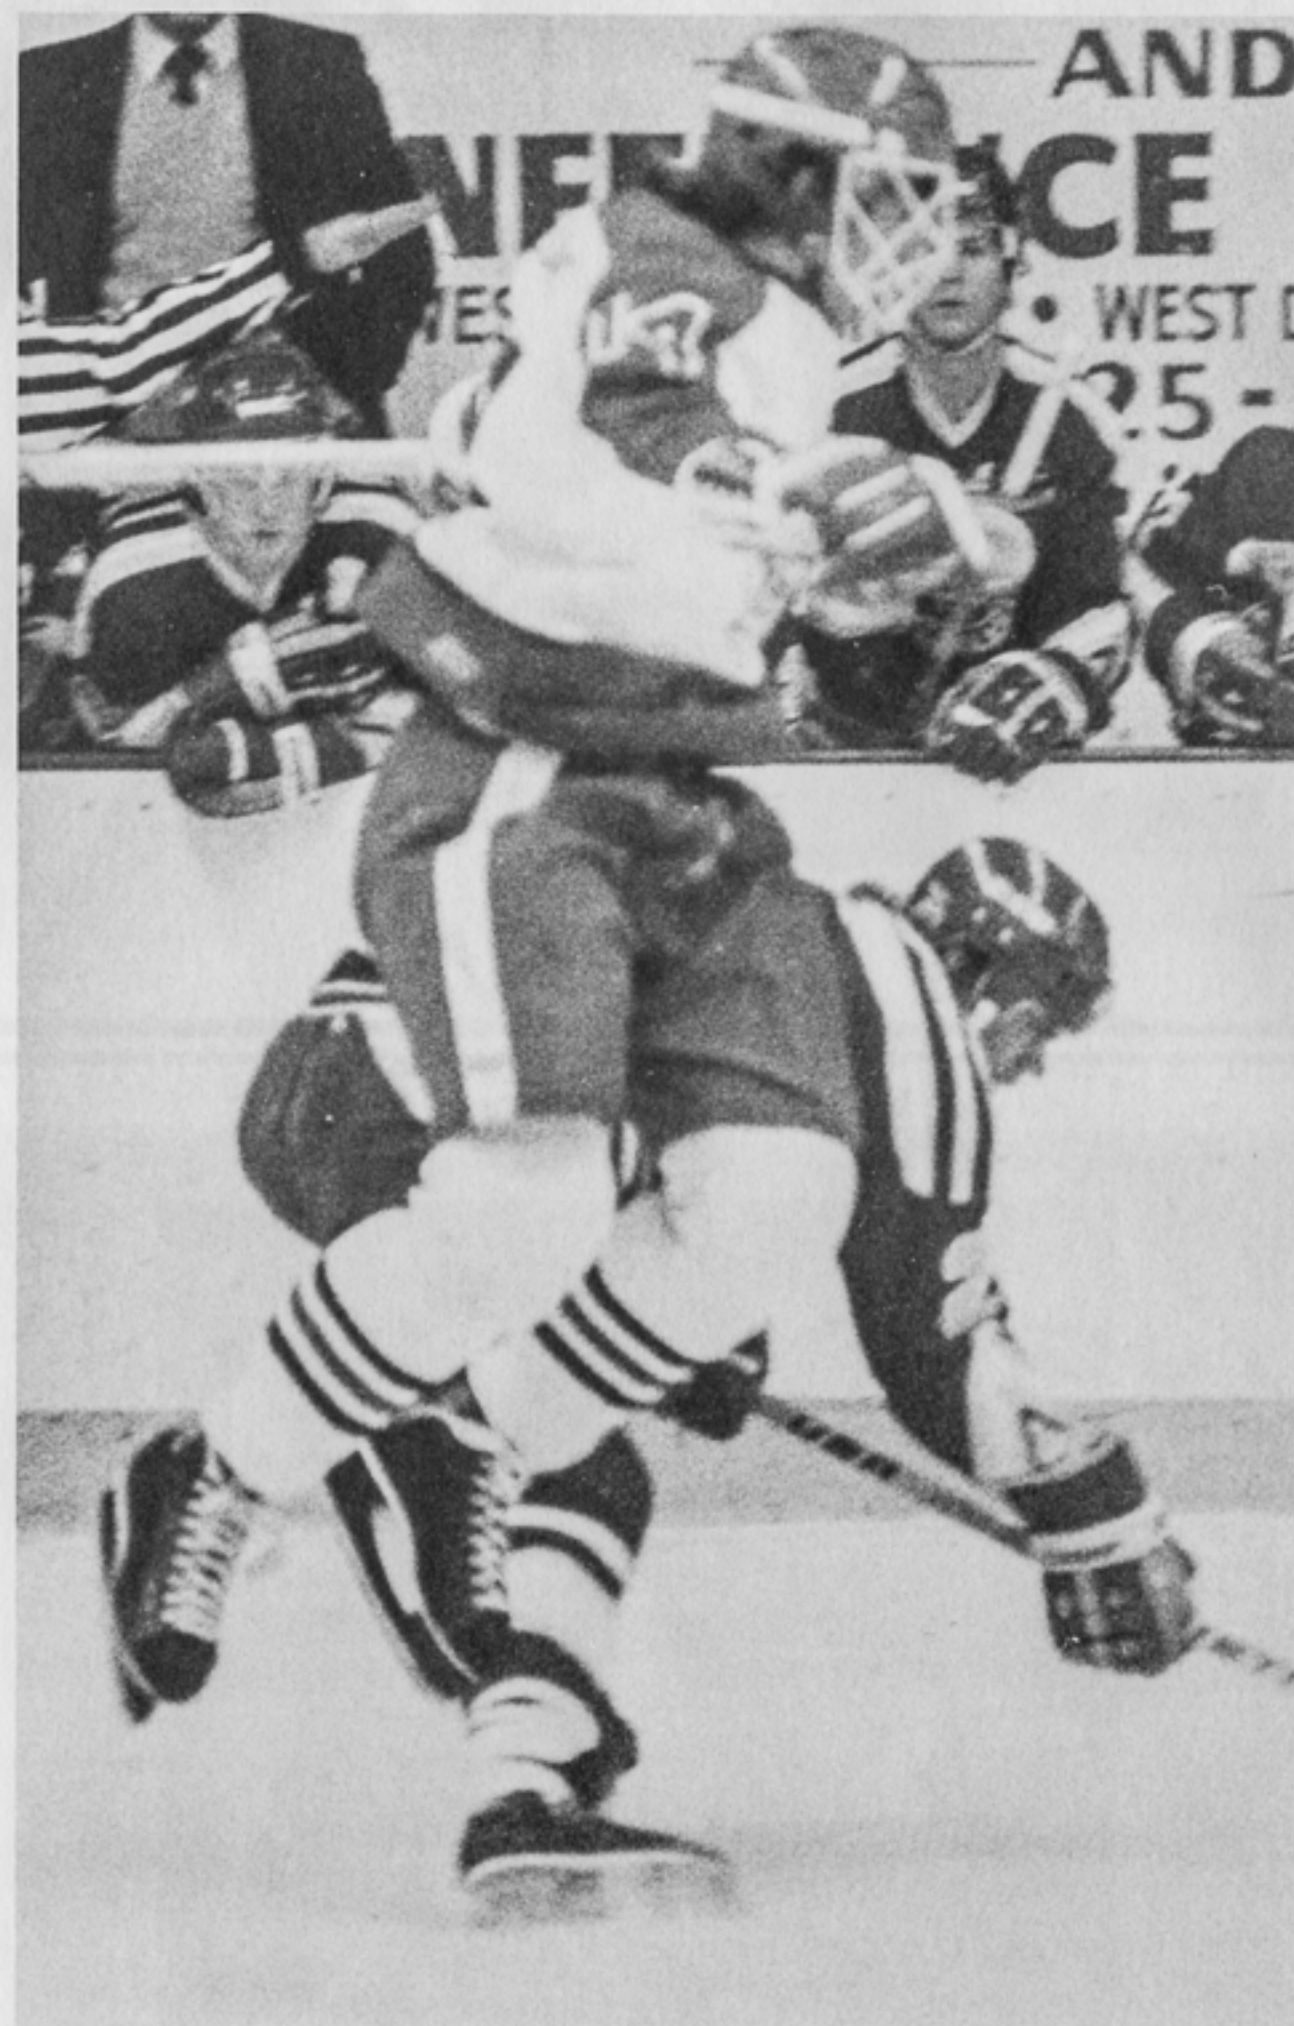

#5

JAMIE HUSGEN — POSITION: DEFENSE/WING

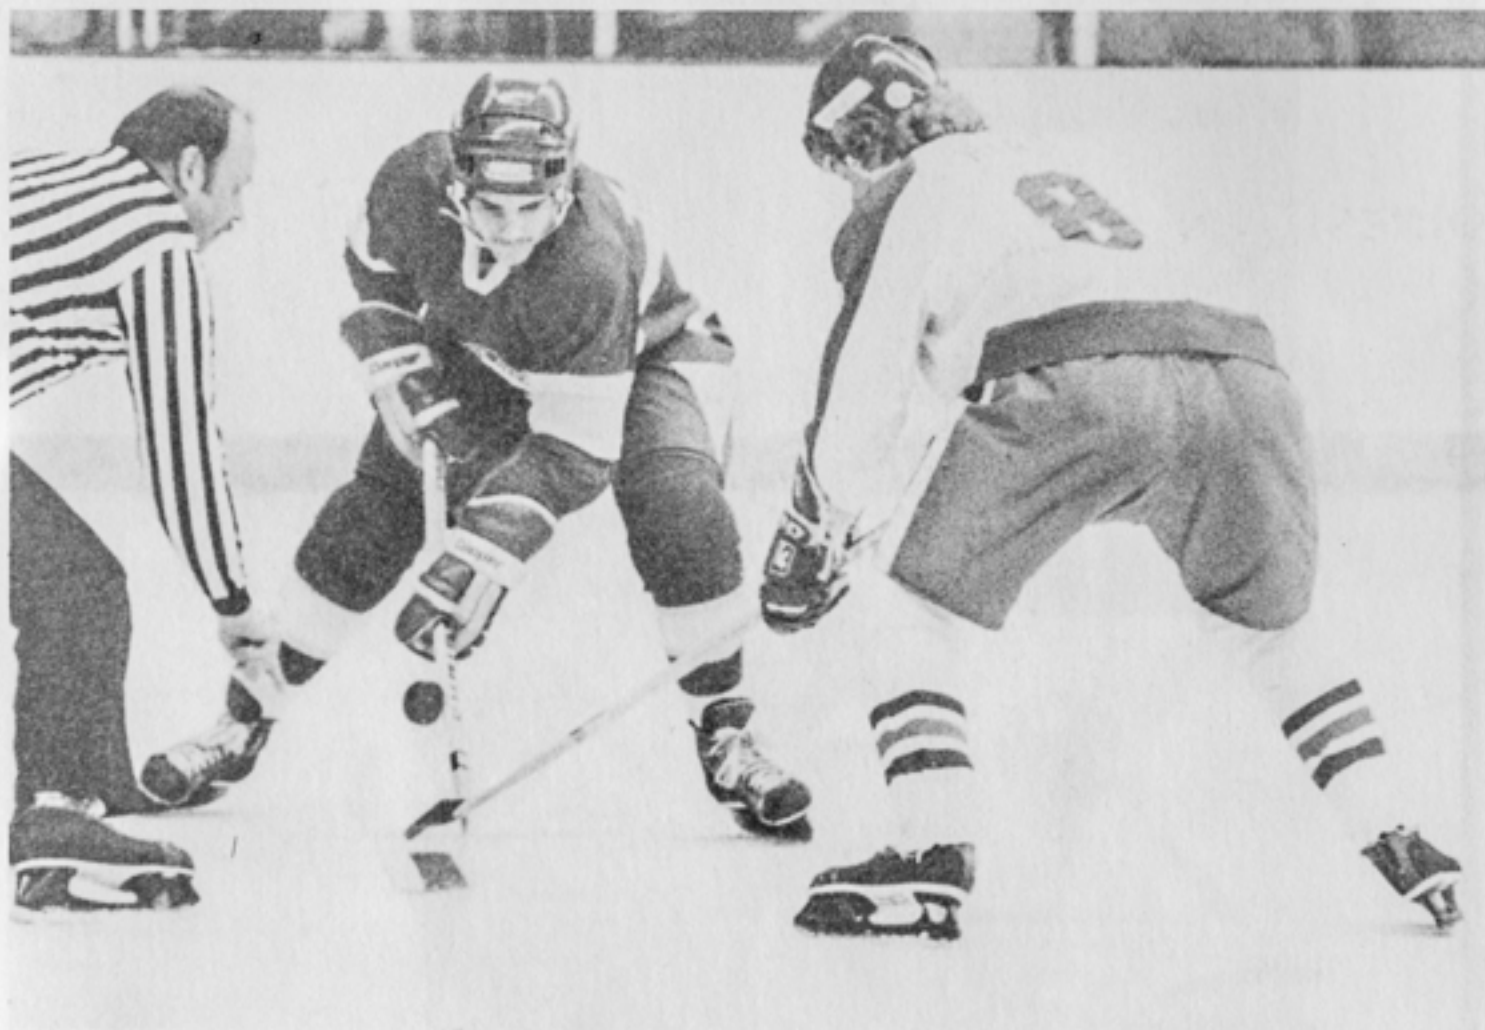

BIRTHDATE: OCTOBER 13, 1964

HOMETOWN: FLORISSANT, MISSOURI

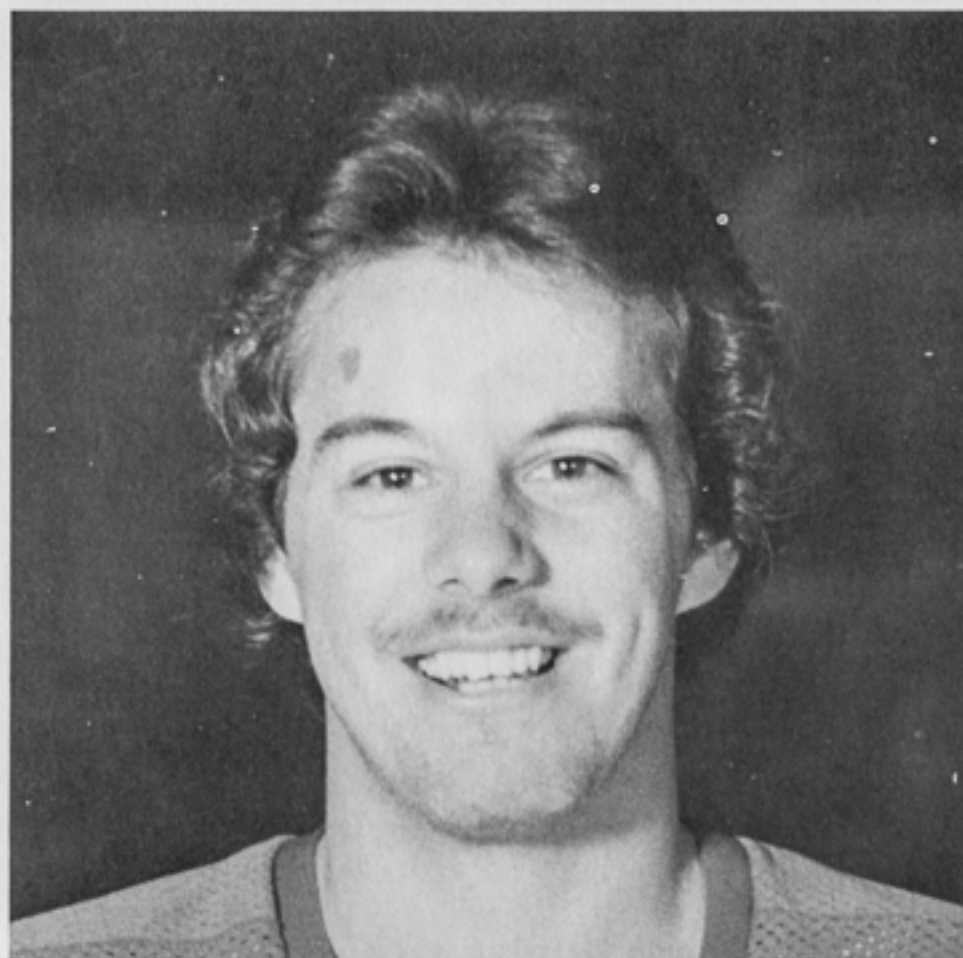

At 6-feet, 3-inches and 210 pounds, Jamie is one of the biggest Buccaneers. He has used his size to become a solid addition to the defensive corps. A high school senior who attends Johnston High School, Jamie's home in Florissant, Mo., is only a short distance from that of Scott Rupp, a star of last season's team. Like many of his teammates, Jamie aspires to attend college and gain a scholarship after his playing days are over here.

High flying Bob Anzalone creates havoc around Sioux City bench.

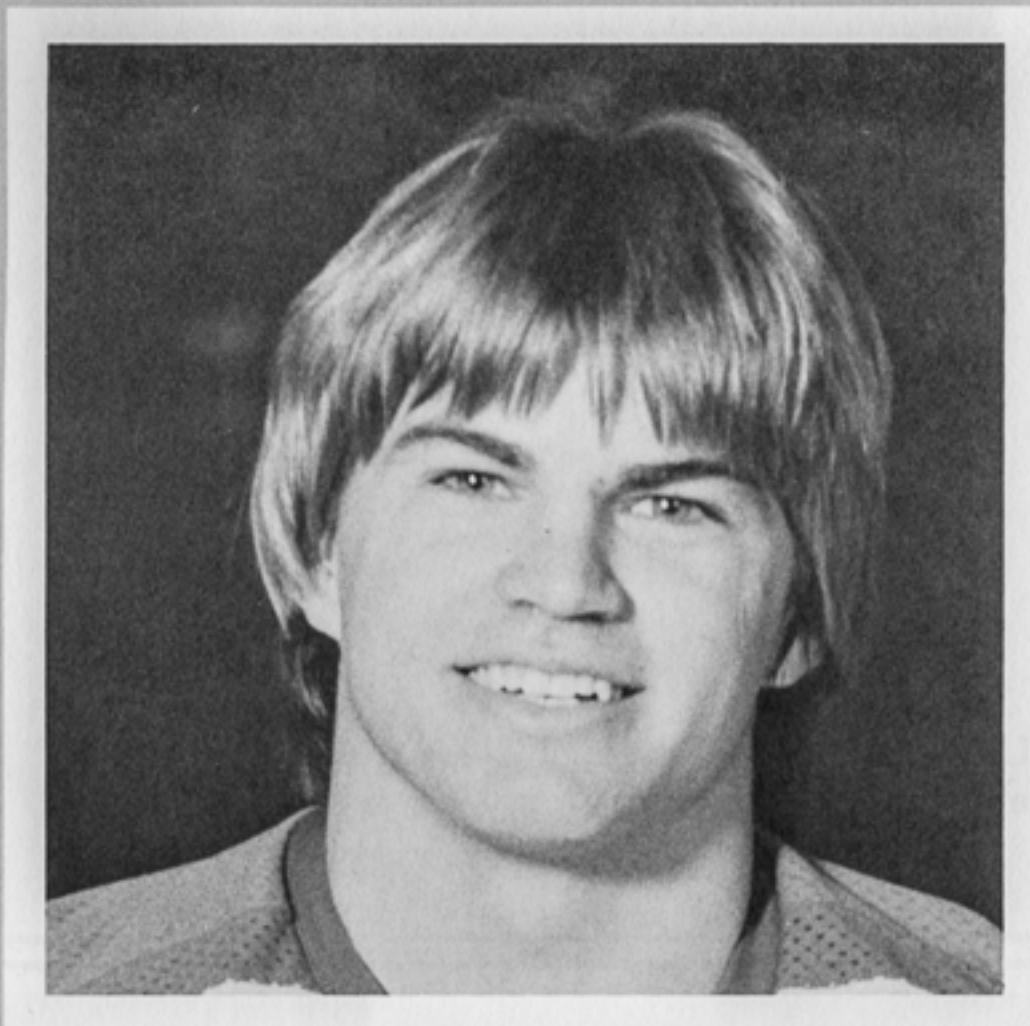

Last year's USHL scoring champion, Myles Hart #8, overpowers a defender in exciting playoff action in 1981-82 season.

BIRTHDATE: MARCH 6, 1963
HOMETOWN: GRAND FORKS, NORTH DAKOTA

This popular 6-foot, 1-inch, 170-pound forward, is noted for his play-making, but in 1981-82 with the Buccaneers, Greg finished 20th in the United States Hockey League scoring race by amassing 58 points on 35 goals and 23 assists in 48 regular-season games. Greg, one of several Buccaneers who have caught the eye of college scouts, hopes to "make it big" in college hockey after helping lead Des Moines to a winning season. When he isn't pleasing fans on the ice, Greg enjoys hunting and fishing.

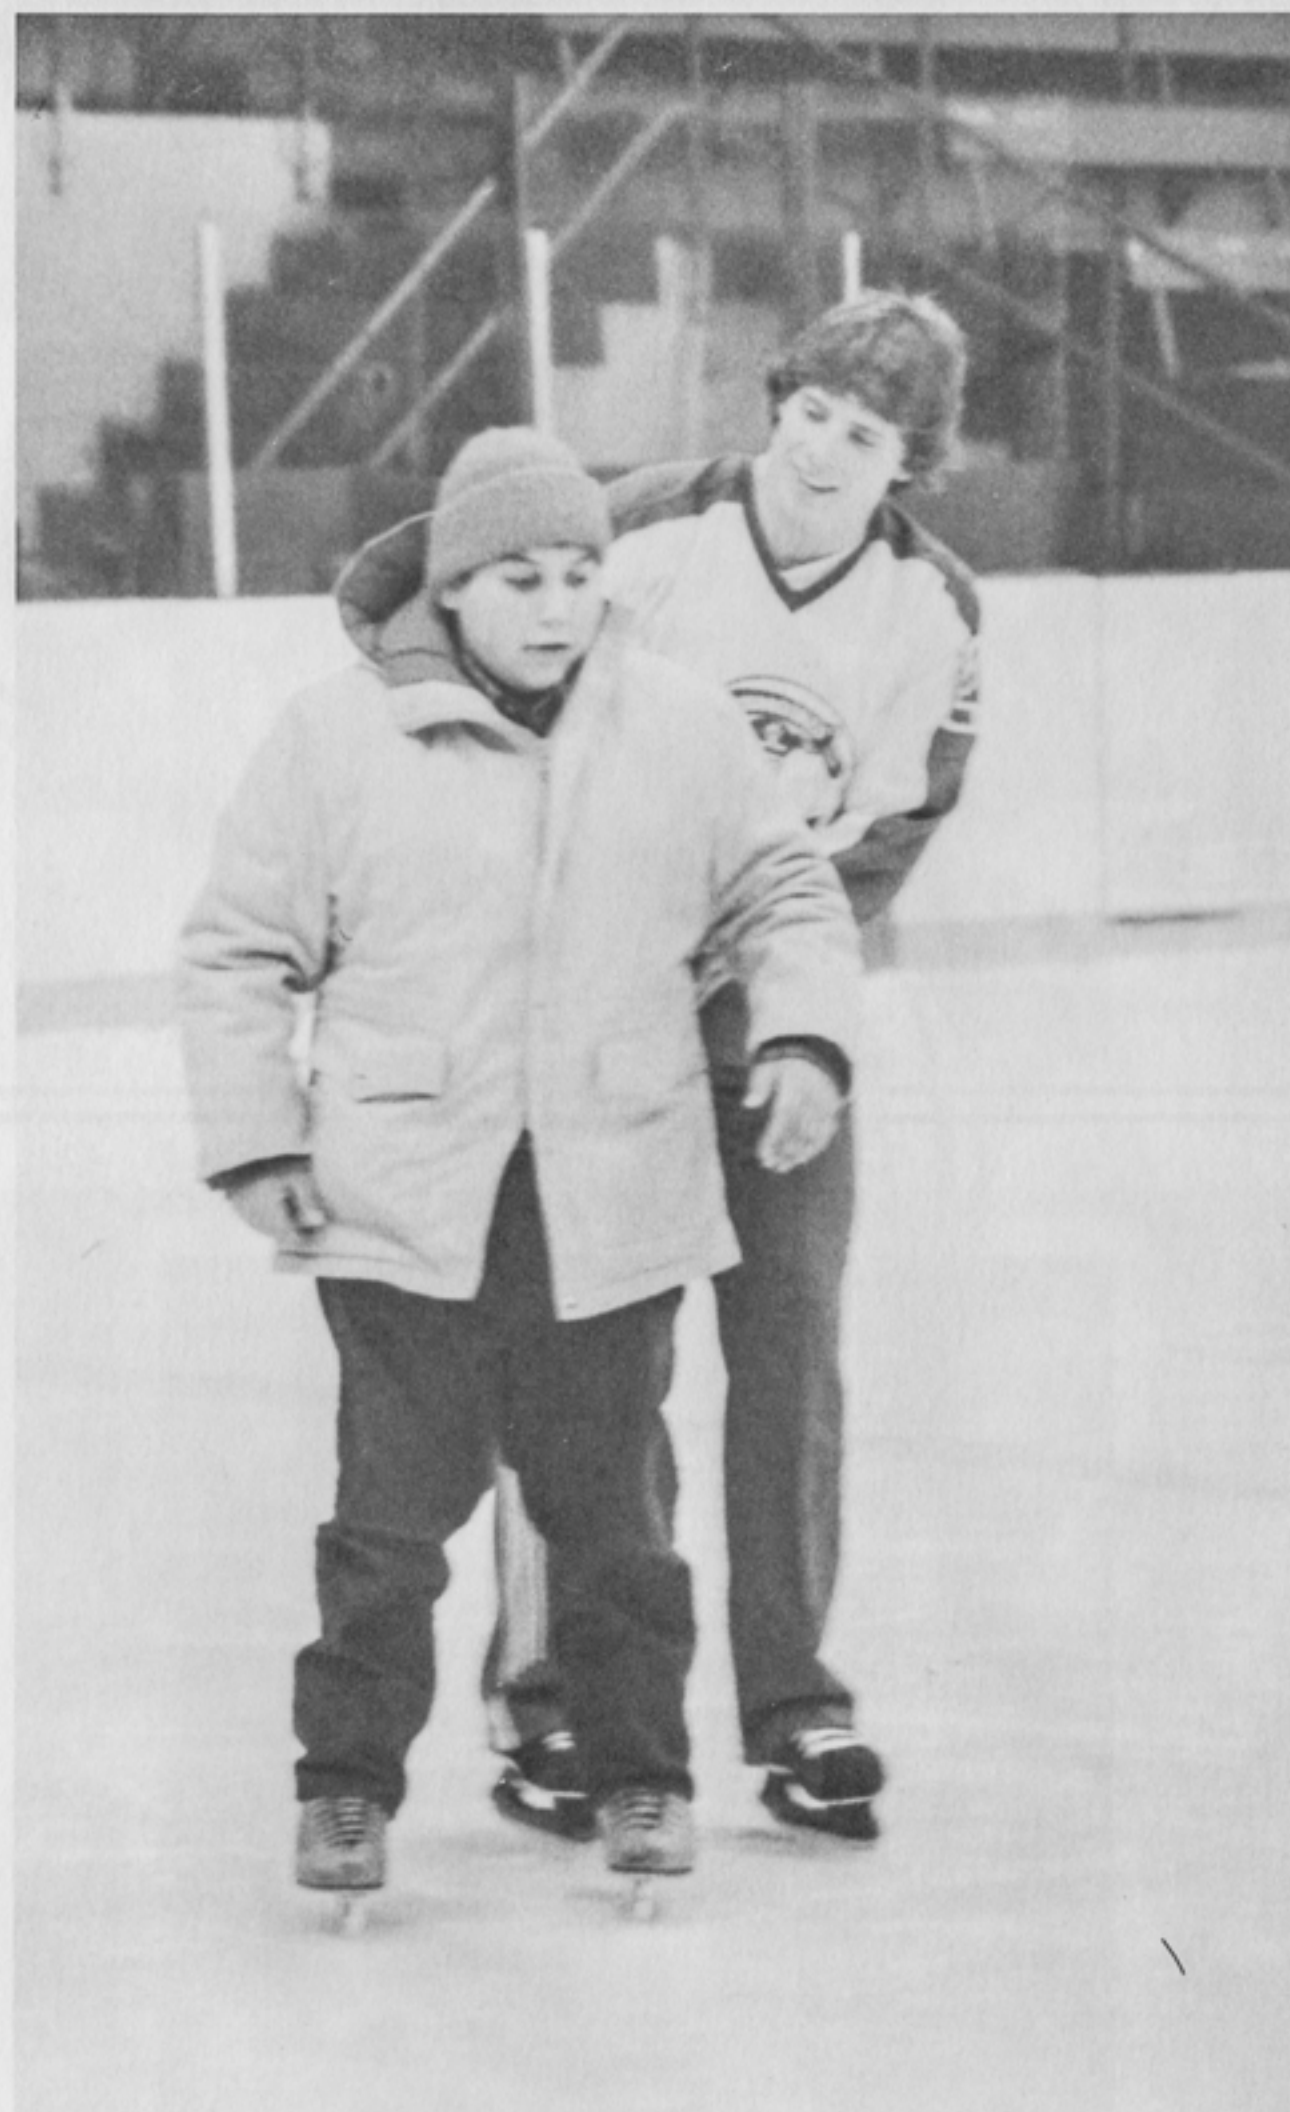

#30

SCOTT PALMISCNO — POSITION: GOAL

BIRTHDATE: FEBRUARY 23, 1964

HOMETOWN: EAST GRAND FORKS, MINNESOTA

Only 5-feet, 5-inches tall, Scott is the shortest Buccaneer but is one of the most popular. He is one of a long line of stars out of East Grand Forks. His brother Steve, now an outstanding wing at the University of North Dakota, was the Bucs' leading scorer in 1980-81. Scott, a 1982 graduate of Central High School, also played football as a prep. He won his school's Spirit Award on the gridiron.

#11 Daryl Seltenreich takes a spill after attempted scoring change.

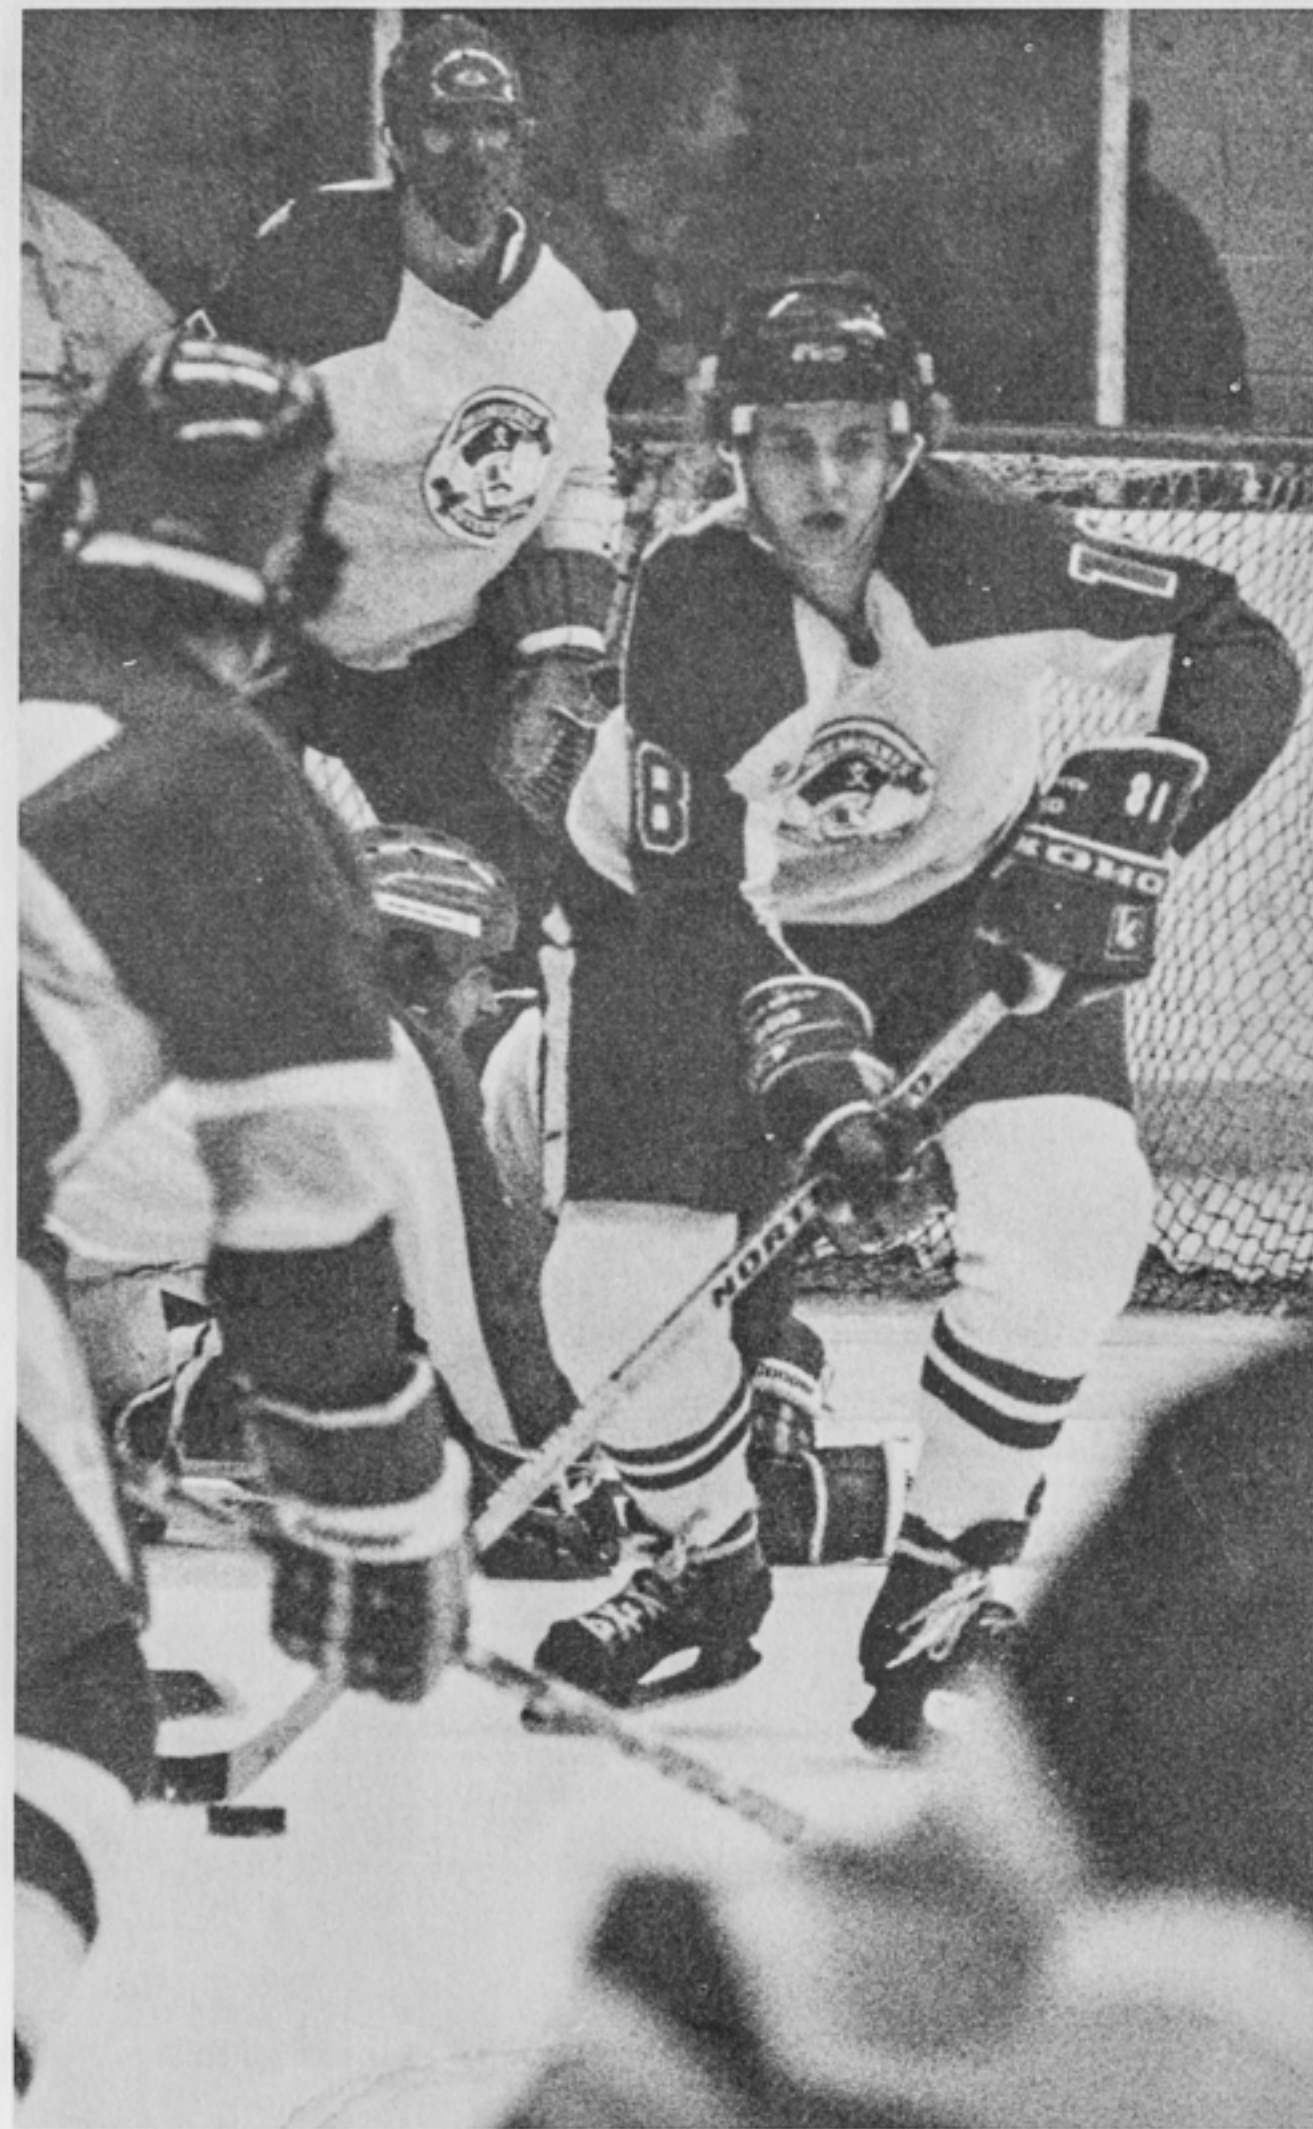

#6

KEVIN TOBIN — POSITION: DEFENSE

BIRTHDATE: JULY 13, 1964

HOMETOWN: LEAWOOD, KANSAS

Kevin, a solid 6-foot, 4-inches and 215 pounds, has the distinction of being the biggest Buccaneer and one of only two who have remained with the team since being on the first squad in 1980-81. Now 19, Kevin attained a 2.5 grade-point average last year, while attending Johnston High School. A left-hander, Kevin seeks to play Division I college hockey and wants to obtain a degree in business and go on to play in the National Hockey League.

SCOTT CROSS — POSITION: RIGHT WING

BIRTHDATE: MARCH 29, 1964

HOMETOWN: URBANDALE, IOWA

This 5-foot, 11-inch, 165-pound star of the future in the United States Hockey League, won all-star honors on the ice and gained academic honors by attaining National Honor Society status before graduating from Urbandale High School last spring. As a prep, he was among the Iowa High School Hockey League's scoring leaders, while in the classroom compiling a 3.6 grade-point average last year. Scott's goal is to excel in the USHL, go on to graduate from college and play hockey as long as possible.
